BROADMAYNE EMERGENCY SCHEME

Normal emergencies are dealt with by Police, Fire & Rescue Service, Ambulance, etc. for which you should telephone 999.

The District Council has a plan setting out how it will react to a major incident in its area which has been produced in conjunction with Dorset County Council and other local agencies and services. The Emergency Planning Liaison Officer is Geoff Gibbs, West Dorset District Council - 01305 252458 or 226583.

His first contact point is the Parish Clerk, Mrs S Blake 01305 263759 with Mrs J Salt 01305 852480 as an alternative.

In case of a contingency such as the village being cut off by snow or through prolonged electricity failure, it is hoped that a measure of communication could be organised within the village. If you are not on the phone, you may contact the person below who lives nearest to you
